

Am. Farm Bureau Endorses Woodruff

Washington, D. C., September 17, 1936
Hon. Roy O. Woodruff, M. C.,
Bay City, Mich.
My dear Congressman
Woodruff:

I have examined your record on agricultural measures during recent years, which I regularly send out at the end of each session of Congress to our State Farm Bureau Federations.

In this official roll call record of the American Farm Bureau Federation, taken, of course, from the Congressional Record, I find that consistently you supported the McNary-Haugen bills and similar measures which were first presented ten years ago as an effort at the solution of the farm problem.

In more recent years this record disclosed that you have supported various measures by Congressman Goldsborough of Maryland and by Senator Thomas of Oklahoma, looking toward revaluation of gold and in general a more modern and adaptable monetary system in the United States.

A further examination of your official record shows that you have been staunch in opposition to a manufacturer's sales tax, in the federal tax structure. You have supported at every opportunity the elimination of the lame duck sessions of Congress. Your record on highway legislation has been a progressive and consistent one.

In all of these positions taken by you in official roll calls in the House of Representatives, your votes have been in agreement with the positions taken on the same measures by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

In addition to these specific records I may state that your general policy and your activities in regard to the question of preserving the home market for American farmers is one that deserves great commendation.

Very respectfully,
American Farm Bureau Federation.
(Signed) Chester H. Gray,
Washington Representative.

TAX RELIEF FOR SELFISH INTERESTS

Selfish Interests would rob Michigan's citizens of their schools and their local government under the guise of tax relief, through state constitution amendment Proposals Three and Four. Proposal Three would deprive schools, welfare, and old age pensions of $12,000,000 annually. Proposal Four would take away nearly all the present funds for local government, by exempting real and personal property from nearly all taxes. Vote "No" on Amendments Proposals Three and Four, November 3.

MRS. ANNABELLE MCKENNA PASSED AWAY.

Mrs. Annabelle McKenna, a resident of Grayling since girlhood, passed away at Mercy Hospital at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday morning as the result of injuries received in an auto accident. Mrs. McKenna was brought to Mercy Hospital Labor Day from Houghton Lake, where she had been employed, having been struck by a car the night previous. She with some friends had alighted from their car on the highway and were in the act of helping some folks who were injured in an accident when Mrs. McKenna was struck by a passing motorist.

Annabelle McLeod was born in Rose City, April 2, 1888 and she came to Grayling with her family some 35 years ago. She attended Grayling schools and in 1905 was united in marriage to Garvin Purcell of Canada. To the union one son Kenneth was born. Her second marriage took place in 1930 to Murray McKenna of Lansing.

Mrs. McKenna was employed for many years as clerk in the grocery store of the A. & P. and later at the N. Schlotz store so that she was known to most everyone in Grayling. She was very kind hearted and especially kind to aged people and little children. Her cheery disposition won her friends wherever she went and when she was a friend to anyone she was a true one.

The funeral is being held this afternoon at 1:30 at the home, followed by services at 2:00 o'clock at Michelson Memorial church. Interment will be in Elmwood cemetery.

Those surviving are her son Kenneth Purcell, a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps, located at Camp Glennie; her mother Mrs. Clara McLeod and three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Charles Woodbury, Bay City; Mrs. Leo White, Adrian; Mrs. Maxine Curtis, Detroit and Joseph and Kenneth McLeod of Grayling. All have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

CLYDE PETERSON TAKES OVER SINCLAIR STATION.

The new Sinclair service station, with Leo Schram as manager, has been taken over by Clyde Peterson. Due to ill health Mr. Schram had to give up the management of the station. The latter successfully operated the Sinclair station on the west side of the street for several years and when the new station on the corner of U. S. 27 and Ogumaw street was completed the company engaged him as the manager, and was in charge until last Monday. Mr. Schram was taken ill a couple of weeks ago and decided that he would have to resign.

Last Monday morning Clyde Peterson assumed the duties of manager. For several years past Mr. Peterson has been the head mechanic at the Alfred Hanson service station and is considered an expert auto mechanic. He needs no introduction to the people of Grayling which has been his home for 20 years.

TOWNSHIP CLERKS—NOTICE.

Next Tuesday is election and results of the voting will be anxiously awaited all over the country. You too will be listening in for the news of how the election is going.

It is only when the fellows on the firing line right here at home do their part that those reports are possible. If all the correspondents fall down on firing reports, the Associated Press and all other news associations are helpless.

Representing these great agencies in Crawford county we are hoping that township clerks will assist by sending in results as early as possible.

If possible phone in number of votes received by candidates for president, for state officers and U. S. Senator. These figures are awaited thruout the state and nation. Vote for district and county offices may reach us later by the regular reports to the county clerk.

We will gladly pay for phone calls and other expense incurred. Phone 42 or 151.
O. P. SCHUMANN.

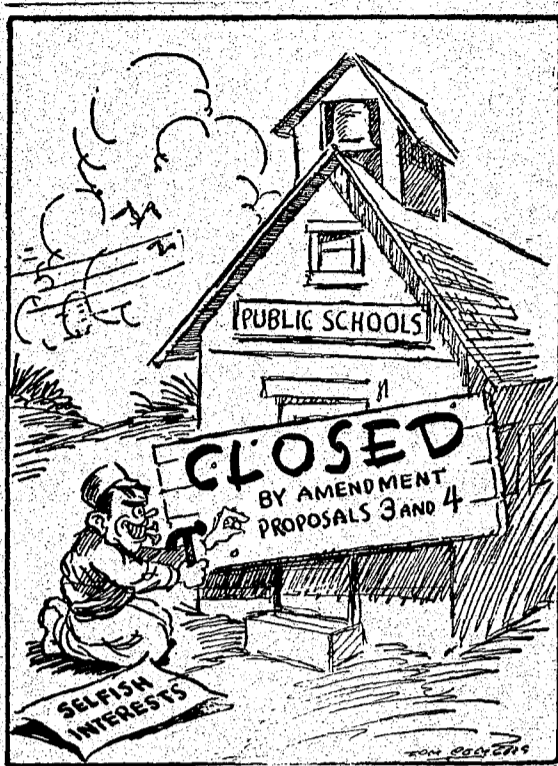

KIWANIS CLUB FORMED AT MANISTEE.

The city of Manistee is now definitely enrolled a member of Kiwanis International. Presentation of their charter was formally made last week Wednesday night, with a program at Hotel Chippewa.

Grayling club was represented at the meeting by President Emil Giegling, who, on behalf of the local club, presented the new club with two sets of International flags. The meeting was presided over by Lt. Governor Gladwin H. Lewis of Traverse City. The charter presentation was made by Vernon Chase, governor of the Michigan district.

The Manistee club is a part of the 8th division group of clubs of which the Grayling club is a member.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

After two weeks of careful preparation, the Seniors of Grayling High are ready for what they hope, will be the largest Halloween party ever held here.

It will be held next Saturday night in the school gym, and the Seniors are expecting at least 400 school children to be present. This affair, now in its fourth year, has grown to such a large extent, that the sponsors of the party do not dare make too elaborate plans for it. Last year it seemed that every youngster in Crawford County was present, and the concessions were all sold out within the first hour or so.

There are many unusual features and angles to this party, chief of which is the fact that this mob of youngsters are kept from the streets of our city, thus preventing the destruction of property, etc. Another good feature is the fact that admission is only three cents and that one can play all sorts of games, visit the House of Horrors, dance, etc., for a few more pennies. An amateur contest, pie eating contest, window soaping contest and many other free attractions with "well worth the time" prizes for the winners.

The committees in charge are: General—Ervin Cady, Bill Joseph, Pauline Entsminger, Leonard Knibbs. Admission—Donald Peterson, Stephan Jorgenson. Concessions—Betty Lamotte, Mary Montour, Donna Griffith, Howard Neal, Bob Hanson, Marguerite Feldhauser. Free Acts—Monica Hewitt, Vivian Nellist. Publicity—Max Ferguson, Margaret Buck.

The Seniors extend a special invitation to the parents to attend the party free of charge. However, because of lack of room, they request that all on-lookers remain on the balcony. The party begins at 7:00 o'clock.

SCHOOL NEWS

At the same time as the home folks are discussing the presidential candidates their sons and daughters in the high school are considerably worked up over the matter too. Un-official ballots have been printed so that on November third the date of the general election, a mock election will be held at the high school. All persons from the 7th grade through the 12th are to be registered voters and allowed to vote for their candidate.

This mock election is being sponsored by the Hi-Y club. Thursday evening at 7:15 Mr. Nellist, Prosecuting Attorney, is to explain to the Hi-Y organization the legal process of holding an election.

On either Friday or Monday afternoon any student who wishes may climb up on the old stump, as the saying goes, and rip and roar for their candidate.

Four years ago an election exactly like this was sponsored by the Hi-Y club and was a tremendous success. An election in the school is as sure a way of finding out how the city is going as a straw vote in the country as a whole. Watch for the results.

Monday afternoon the grade children thru the courtesy of Mr. Olson, manager of the Rialto Theater, and the N. Y. A. were shown a moving picture dealing with accidents and their prevention. With a Mickey Mouse cartoon to supplement the more serious picture the program was voted decidedly worth while.

This is the beginning of a nation wide effort to organize Safety Clubs for the prevention of accidents. Those in attendance wish to thank Mr. Olson and Mr. Carrol for their efforts.

In review of the breakfast unit which they have just completed, the ninth grade Home Economics girls are making posters illustrating what they have learned about breakfast.

Each girl in the advanced Home Economics class has selected a home project. These are chosen from some phase of the work which they have already completed in class, and includes some problem new to them. The projects are carried on at home and are to be finished before Christmas.

High school basket ball practice for the 1936-37 season officially began Monday, October 26th, with the number of young hopefuls who reported for duty last year and the year before last. Approximately 20 artists or artists to be, came out to show their value to this year's varsity, each one unafraid of the fact that he would be a sparkplug in the rebuilding process. Last year nearly thirty future stars were present and the year before that 40 young men were aspirants to the Throne of Stardom.

Of the number who reported Monday, seven saw action on last year's varsity, some only a few minutes but still, they were there. Three lettermen are back including Chalker, B. Hanson and L. Dunham. All in all it doesn't look like such a bad year for Grayling because every man who came out has the fighting spirit and knows that they will have to prove their wealth if they hope to get a place on the varsity.

Because of the construction of a new gymnasium floor, beginning next week the first game might have to be played at Kalkaska instead of here as scheduled.

5th Grade.
We were very much interested in the splendid report which Billy Ann Clippert gave of her trip to St. Paul, Minn., and Minneapolis.

We as a fifth grade, wish to thank Mr. Olson for the free show at the Rialto, Monday. We learned a great many things about the problems of safety and also enjoyed the added features.

Fifth grade,
Teacher, Miss Douglas.

How do Roosevelt and Landon stand with the public on the eve of the election? America Speaks can tell you. Read it in Sunday's Detroit News.

LITERARY DIGEST POLL ELECTS LONDON PRESIDENT

Indications are, according to the final Literary Digest poll given out Wednesday night, that Landon will not only be given the majority popular vote in the nation, but also a large majority of the electoral vote.

The report of total votes gives: Roosevelt 972,897
Landon 1,293,669

Electoral vote:
Roosevelt 161
Landon 370

The poll in Michigan gives: Roosevelt 25,686
Landon 51,479

Even tho it should happen, in spite of the result of the Digest poll, that Mr. Roosevelt should win, the voting clearly indicates that the strong popular vote against him is a protest on the part of the people against his administration. Election is next Tuesday when the voters will determine if we are to continue under the "new deal" administration or that Alf M. Landon is to become the nation's chief executive.

We have never heard a president of the United States so bitterly criticized in an election campaign as President Roosevelt, especially by leading members of his own political party. If he has been unfair in his administration, violated his constitutional oath, disregarded the principles of the party that founded the platform on which he was elected, has endeavored to build up a powerful political machine by the use of public funds and other censorious acts with which he has been accused, then he himself is only to blame.

In past elections the poll of the Literary Digest has always proven correct and it will be interesting to find out the outcome of this present poll.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AND DANCE

Mrs. Dodge passed away at her home in Frederic on Oct. 19 following a short illness. Surviving besides the husband are two sons, Clifford Knibbs of Frederic, and Clarence Knibbs of Mesick, Mich., also her mother Mrs. Anna Wells and brother Roy Wells of Frederic.

ON DISPLAY at all Buick Showrooms

SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year.

Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision.

Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars into next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence?

We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!"

That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent re-tooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more.

That's why every car in the 1937 Buick line—the SPECIAL, the CENTURY, the ROADMASTER and the LIMITED—is a triumph visibly and intrinsically outranking anything we have ever done.

Each has more beauty for dazzling style, more power for breath-taking action, more room for full-family comfort, more downright "road-command" for safety and pleasure.

See them—then you'll know why Buick's soaring sales curve is headed for yet loftier altitudes next year.

YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES!
You can afford the new Buick. It's easy to buy and thrifty to own. With all its quality, its phenomenal performance and stunning style, prices start as low as $765 and up list at Flint, Mich. General Motors terms to suit your liking. Safety glass included, accessories extra. Price subject to change without notice. YOUR MONEY GOES FARTHER IN A GENERAL MOTORS CAR

WHY LANDON IS WINNING

We are still in the horse and buggy age when estimating man. Character tells. Americans prize it above all else. "A man's a man for a' that" in the minds of our people. That is why Alf Landon is steadily winning their confidence and support. They like his frankness, his fairness, common-sense way of meeting the issues of the day. He is no great orator; he indulges in no flighty words; makes no promises to bring people into green pastures or to lead them beside still waters. He leaves that kind of talk to his opponent.

In a word, Landon always has his feet on the ground and his head out of the clouds of illusion. He needs no brain-trust to tell him how to think or what to think. He knows that going into debt never led to profits and that progress was never made on a continuing deficit. He knows that you cannot build a house on a vacuum, or make subtraction look like addition.

Yes—just a horse and buggy sort of a fellow is Landon—a right-thinking, steady-going American, with a challenging attitude toward all who would make over our government into such a mess as is to be found in most of Europe.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

A most interesting and effective meeting of the Harry Hemmingson Post No. 1224, was held in the home of Arthur Wendt (Commanding Officer) in Grayling, Tuesday evening. This was the annual election of officers and the following were chosen to lead the Post in its activities for the ensuing year:

Neal Matthews, Commander.
Floyd Taylor, 1st Vice Commander.
Oral La Rue, 2nd Vice Commander.

Chris R. King, Quartermaster.
J. Lawrence Connolly, Chaplain.
William Laurant, Judge Advocate.

James A. Fredenburgh and Arthur Wendt, Trustees.

The installation of these officers will take place November 6th, and a committee of 3 have promised a live time for all attending. Refreshments and program will be ready to entertain those invited. Not only are members expected to attend one hundred per cent but all veterans of the immediate vicinity are urged to be present.

It is expected that Judge Caulkins of Gaylord will be appointed by the State organization as Installing Officer. He is always efficient and ever welcome in this Post.

STATE DISTRIBUTES $2,336,401.82 TUITION MONEY

The State of Michigan will distribute $2,336,041.82 of tuition money to the various school districts this week. A statement of the amounts due each county was furnished to the Auditor General John J. O'Hara on October 14 by the Department of Public Instruction. Mr. O'Hara stated that the checks would be mailed to the County Treasurers on October 17.

The state now pays all high school tuition up to $65.00 per pupil. The amount of tuition due Crawford county is $2,122.00.

Legion Jottings

"Spike" McNeven was host to the members of the American Legion Drum and Bugle corps at their hall Monday night. When notice was circulated that Spike was going to throw a party, the fellows knew what that meant and there was a full attendance showed up for the regular drum corps practice. After practice the table was spread with everything that goes to make up a "dutch" lunch. This is the kind of spirit and friendship that counts and the members very much appreciate the courtesy.

The social meeting of the Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sam Rasmussen. Mrs. Floyd Taylor held high score for pinocle, with Mrs. Earl Hewitt winning consolation.

DEMICK BOUSLEY

St. Mary's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, last Tuesday morning, at 8:00 o'clock, when Miss Marguerite Bousley, of Wyandotte, became the bride of Mr. Clement J. Demick also of Wyandotte. Rev. Fr. James Moloney officiated.

The bride was lovely in a rust-colored traveling suit and her bouquet was of chrysanthemums and roses. Her sister and only attendant, Miss Annabelle Bousley, chose for the occasion a brown traveling suit, and her bouquet was similar to that of the bride. Russell Saucier attended the groom.

Miss Bousley is a niece of Mrs. Paul Lovely and has many friends here, who extend congratulations and best wishes.

200 CHILDREN JOIN SAFETY CLUB

A swarm of youngsters attended the free safety matinee at Rialto theater Monday afternoon and enjoyed a couple of safety films in addition to a Mickey Mouse comedy. Of the safety pictures the first one "The Bad Master" showed the result of careless practices among children and the other "Saving Seconds" was along the same line.

Following the show some 200 boys and girls joined the Safety Town club pledging to observe eight very good safety rules. The matinee was presented thru the courtesy of the management of the Rialto theatre and the National Youth Administration, the latter represented by Tom Carroll, Mr. Olson and Mr. Carroll are to be commended for their efforts to stimulate safety consciousness among children.

Concerning November Third

ON NOVEMBER THIRD the people of America and of Michigan will write history when they mark their ballots throughout the land. They have been doing this for many years, but seldom in history have Americans faced a more important issue at the polls than they will this November.

Since the New Deal moved its over-paid and under-brained brain trust into Washington, accompanied by 400,000 New Deal bureaucrats and yes-men, Americans have accustomed themselves to a frantic expenditure of federal funds. They have become hardened to the fact that Washington will spend millions of dollars for fish ponds, ping pong tournaments and classes in beauty culture.

And so long has the program persisted that many of us have come to believe that the Treasury Department possesses an inexhaustible supply of funds, which may be pumped out recklessly for any and every purpose, without a thought as to where a new supply of money is to come from. But, like the little boy who started taking small change out of mama's sugar bowl, the day of reckoning must eventually come when the sugar bowl is empty Tommy must take his spanking like a man.

And the man and woman of today will take their spankings when the Washington sugar bowl is emptied, in the form of a taxation program that will transcend anything ever experienced in this country.

BUT PERHAPS we've dealt too much with taxes in this department. More important, undoubtedly, are the facts to be faced which will limit American freedom and initiative. Today, with eleven million people out of work, and many of them on WPA and other federal projects, it may safely be said that a great percentage of those eleven million votes may be counted before they ever reach the ballot box. For the people who control those votes are "told" what to do and how to vote, much as is the Negro of the south today.

Another fact which is repellent to free Americans is that clause of the so-called Social Security Act, which provides that 25,000,000 American workers are to be fingerprinted and issued cards bearing "their number," not unlike the work cards of Soviet Russia. The New Deal is determined to regiment America, so that the New Deal thumb may be brought to bear with the needed amount of pressure to "keep the American people in line and to insure the perpetuation of the New Deal." Four more New Deal years and America will no longer be peopled with independent, free-thinking citizens. You will be No. VC-475,691. I will be No. VC-572,241 and so on. We will have wiped the finger-printer's ink off our fingers, and every once-in-awhile a supercilious so-and-so will walk up and say "Come, my man, let's see your card!"

AND THE FARMER... they'll keep right on telling him how much to plant, what to plant, how much he shall sell it for, and perhaps whether he shall bed down his cows and horses with straw or silage... but you can bet your bottom dollar that as soon as they have him in hand they'll see how foothill it is to pay the poor dub for killing pigs or plowing under cotton.

SMALL BUSINESS will get its second big kick in the pants (not to mention the dozen or more little ones) when the power of the Supreme Court is circumvented and another NRA flourish is again spread its wings, and the independent grocer, garage man, druggist and their fellow businessmen will know what color blue is then, and it won't be because they've studied the sky and thrilled to the thoughts of American freedom.

AS FAR AS STATE politics go Michigan will go Republican, but the voter who is concerned with national progress, as well as state progress, will do his utmost to help improve the national picture with a straight Republican ticket. Fitzgerald and Brucker have Michigan pretty much in the bag. They polled tremendous pluralities at the last election and they have been good and faithful public servants ever since they took office. Michigan will go to bat for them, and for their cohorts on the Republican state ticket; Orville Atwood, Luren Dickinson, David Crowley, Howard Warner, John O'Hara and Harry S. Toy.

While Murphy will probably do fairly well in Wayne county he is a dead issue in practically every other part of the state. People who are "in the know" will avoid him like poison, simply because they dread the thought of "Tammany" in Michigan. Frank is a good boy, and likeable, but the set of his sails isn't right for the Governor's office, to my notion, and I hate to think that a free-born state would ever sacrifice her State's Rights and accept Washington domination... and that's what would occur if Frank moved to Lansing. He is one of Roosevelt's fair-haired boys... just a chessman that F.D.R. moves about at will.

MANY VOTES will go to the Democrats on November third... from thousands of intimidated souls on New Deal payrolls... but the thinking men and women of America are going to vote too—and I hope their votes make history, promising history, for it's time to write another page.

Among the Clerks

(By J. Wellington Burnsted)

I am not allowed to tell you that Edna Muth is working this week at the Hanson Cafe, replacing Eva Mae Bugby, who is visiting in Flint. Edna says Mercy Hospital doors will open wide if there's a slip-up.

But then, as Helen Bugby says, "She's not a bit more of a something than the rest of us." It's something to have the bosses scratching their okays on the bottom line.

They tell me Sam Smith, of the Grayling Laundry, is a roll of bandages since he tried to tear up the good old earth. It takes quite a blow to get a good man down and I'm glad to see Sammy can take it on the chin.

Forgot to tell you about the big pheasant hunt that took place a week ago Sunday. Frank Serven, York Edmonds and Harry Rohde took to the woods near Munger, with the usual luck. York is to be complimented on the two beauties but we feel pretty ashamed for the other fellows. Must have been the sights on the Old Dependable, or something.

During the past week or so we have become accustomed to the flash of red hair in the region of the post office as Blanche Wheeler seeks, in vain, for Detroit mail. When that gal gets stirred up, there's no telling what might happen—so in the meantime, local officers of the law, hospital authorities, and members of the local fire department are instructed to stand by in case of emergency.

The Pure Food boys beg leave to inform you that the Pure Food Quadruplets are now Pure Food. Triplets; one of the foursome having passed on, in spite of most excellent attention and solicitous care. We're just wondering what became of the little fellow's other eight lives.

Bring 'em home alive! is the hunting slogan of that famous demon of the rabbit woods—Aubrey Blaine. Together with his twelve-year-old brother-in-law, this fearless hunter managed to "tree" a jackrabbit and capture him without aid of weapons. The animal will be duly "stuffed" and mounted above the famous Blaine arsenal.

When our fair Eva, of the H. C. goes to Grand Rapids, she will be carried over the city's threshold. According to latest reports from the Western Front, which states that Eva is probably soon to go to that city, but as I said before, not as a worker.

A lot of us are getting mighty curious about that much-talked-about gun that seems to be getting so much attention at the Keg-O-Nails. If you would like to see an expert demonstration, be sure and look up Jimmy Post.

Following the accident that occurred to Dr. S. N. Insley, about two weeks ago, when his arm was broken while in the act of cranking his car, some of his friends concluded that the community could not afford to have him take any more chances by using his old car, and decided that they would make him a present of a new car. To say that the doctor was pleased with his car would be putting it mildly. It almost took him off his feet, and he hardly knew what to say, but managed to mumble that a fellow don't have to die in Grayling in order to be appreciated. It is a 1914 model, B-25-5 passenger Buick. (Note: a picture of the model appears with the story.)

WOMEN'S DEMOCRATIC MEETING

A very interesting and constructive meeting of the Crawford County Democratic Women's club was held at the courthouse Wednesday evening of last week, with an attendance numbering close to fifty women.

The meeting was opened under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ann Ketcham, an ardent Democratic worker, formerly of Kalamazoo, where she grew familiar with this work and who is now residing in Grayling.

While the Club has been organized temporarily for some and work very enthusiastically, it was formally organized by the very capable and efficient committee woman of the Eastern Central division—Mrs. Clara Sargent of West Branch.

The officers elected were as follows:

President—Mrs. Ann Ketcham.
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. Albert Charron.
2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. James McDonnell.

Treas.—Mrs. John Brady.
Sec'y.—Mrs. Adolph Peterson.

After the business meeting the speech of Frank Picard, one he gave over the radio recently, dealing with the administration of Gov. Fitzgerald, was read by Mrs. Ketcham and was very interesting.

Mrs. Sargent in a pleasant and cheery manner gave a resume of the condition of the government and its affairs as it was in 1933 and the gradual improvement in the last three years—comparing the difference in the eight billion dollar national debt contracted by President Roosevelt for a "Constructive National Program" and the national war debt amounting to billions of dollars more which the speaker said, was used for "Destruction."

There were many other fine points in her speech to think over and pass on to others.

Mr. Kelly of Bay City, Democratic candidate for congressman of the 10th district, gave an enlightening talk on the big worry as to where the money is going to come from to pay the national debt, the Security bill, the act protecting the small bank depositor, The Townsend Plan, etc. He then gave his audience a slate of the State candidates giving some personal description of each.

This fine meeting was an incentive to each and every one for better cooperation, more interest and a keener outlook on current events.

DEER HUNTERS TO WEAR NUMBER

A vast majority of Michigan's deer hunters are apparently in different as to what number they will wear on their hunting coats this fall.

Less than 60 low-number license tags have been issued by the department of conservation to hunters who requested them by letter or telephone. These tags run in numerical order up to 54. Several higher numbers have been reserved on request.

Conservation authorities here are somewhat surprised. They had expected a much greater demand for low numbers.

Fred Cook, superintendent of state fish hatcheries, was here last week and we had the pleasure of being with him on an inspection trip to the new Grayling fish hatchery building. This institution is fast nearing completion and is going to be one of the finest trout hatchery plants in the state. The new building will be a model of completeness and very attractive in appearance. It is built not only for efficiency but will combine with it a show place for the public, for whom such places are always a great attraction. Just as soon as this building is complete, plans for a home for the superintendent will be put into action. It is expected to have the new plant ready for hatching operations this winter. The Conservation commission is to be congratulated on putting up this fine structure. And the people of Grayling are going to be proud of having it as a part of our city's attractions.

Dignity and Rank in China

Merchants and business men are considered the fourth or lowest class in China. First come scholars, then farmers, then artisans. Soldiers are a class apart, possibly because they may be taken from one or other of the four classes.

Two Extremes

While the Roosevelt administration was spending two dollars for each dollar of revenue received, and creating a deficit of more than $14,000,000,000, Gov. Alf M. Landon was holding down government expenses in Kansas and seeing to it that the state did not spend more than its revenue.

RED CROSS AID TO MORE THAN 500,000 DISASTER VICTIMS

Large Urban Areas Devastated As Elements Hit 20 States East of Mississippi

"The number of disaster victims assisted by the Red Cross during the fiscal year ended June 30 was more than four times the number aided in the previous twelve month period," Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman, said in commenting on highlights of the annual report just issued. "Over 13,000 families were given food, clothing, shelter and medical care, and thousands of homes were rebuilt or repaired by the Red Cross to enable them to carry on."

Pointing to the many-sided problems created by the wide variety of types of disasters which occurred during the year, Admiral Grayson said, "The Red Cross sent hundreds of trained workers into 39 states to meet the many exigencies of catastrophes which included earthquake, epidemic, explosion, fire, hurricane, ice lock, landslide, refugee relief, shipwreck, tornado and typhoon. The Red Cross took charge at the scenes of 105 domestic disasters of major severity."

The report emphasized the marked value of Government-Red Cross cooperation when disaster strikes, giving as example the flight of Army bombing planes which dropped Red Cross food to marooned refugees at Renovo, Pennsylvania, during the Spring floods. More than 10,000 persons were rescued from the second floors of homes in Wilkes-Barre and Kingston through Coast Guard-Red Cross cooperation at the height of these same floods.

"Government agencies and relief groups were of invaluable assistance to Red Cross relief forces at all times," Admiral Grayson stated.

The complete resources of Red Cross leadership, training and disaster experience were brought into play by the Spring floods and tornadoes which took so heavy a toll of life and property in eastern and southern states this year, the annual report reveals. The Red Cross aided 77,000 families in 14 flooded states east of the Mississippi and 6,000 families in 6 tornado hit states south of the Mason-Dixon line in this one operation.

"Never before have as many metropolitan centers borne the brunt of attack by wind and water within a single year, challenging Red Cross preparedness and efficiency by so wide a variety of pressing human problems," Chairman Grayson said.

In its work of relief to disaster sufferers the Red Cross expended in excess of $5,200,000 for the year. The report points out that this figure does not include assistance given in 27 lesser disasters with a total of 2,000 persons aided, and adds that additional millions will be used to "clean up" Spring floods and tornadoes.

"Numerous local disaster situations occurring during the year were met by Red Cross chapter funds and manpower," Admiral Grayson said. "In each major relief operation undertaken the great army of Red Cross volunteers aided trained workers with the task of rehabilitating those without resources who had suffered losses."

"The Red Cross disaster relief service is one of many Red Cross activities supported by the American people through membership at the time of Roll Call, held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving."

4,000-Year-Old Boat Found
Said to be 4,000 years old, a boat hollowed from a tree trunk was found 5 feet underground in Sandwich, England, a half mile from the sea.

what Irvin S. Cobb thinks about:

Campaign's Home Stretch.

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.—Here the campaign is practically on its last legs, when it isn't standing on its head and spinning around—but yet not a peep out of the three fairest-haired young hopes of the New Deal.

They're still putting on an act—what's known in vaudeville as a dumb act—entitled "The Bollo Boys in a Sub-Cellar."

Horrid tales abound. 'Tis rumored that the gurgling sound coming from the White House dungeon is caused by Tugwell trying to get the gag out of his mouth with both hands tied behind his back. And a note believed to have been written by Harry Hopkins has been slipped through the bars begging somebody to smuggle in a file in a loaf of bread.

Richberg, once the merriest of the administration's songsters, doesn't chirp any more, having been induced to take on the role of the man in the iron mask.

Remote-Control Patriotism.

DID you ever notice that these impassioned European statesmen, who so boldly defy tyrants in the homeland, generally put two or three national boundaries between themselves and the objects of their hate bore cutting loose? One fiery anti-fascist waited until he got to Hoboken to tell Mussolini right to his face—the face being only 5,000 miles distant—exactly what he thought of him.

Not that I'd blame any patriot for playing safety first, dictators being so sensitive to criticism. In fact, I like the idea so much, I'm thinking of taking a correspondence course in lion-taming, myself.

Debunking Politics.

CAN nothing be done to stop the destructive utterances of this man, Al Smith? Think of him, as he did in that Philadelphia speech of his, urging the voters to sift the bunk out of the campaign and study the facts. Does he want to defate the whole system of American politics? Would you hire a cook who squeezed all the meat out of the sausage and fried the sausage skin for breakfast?

Even so, maybe a little debunking would be gratifying to quite a lot of us who wish to start concentrating on football as soon as possible. I'm especially interested in how Yale comes out on its clever little idea of selling to a commercial broadcast the radio rights for all games played on the home grounds. But the fellow who gets the empty-bottles concession is the one who'll really clean up.

"Lead Dollars" Immortality.

HOW some old friends do hang on! Twenty-five years ago or thereabouts, it appeared as a short story in Everybody's magazine under the title, "The Lead Dollar."

Twenty years ago, believing I was using an actual occurrence which never before had been fictionalized, I wrote it, too, and called it "Heart of Lead," and, barely in time, was saved by Bob Davis and Charlie Van Loan from the unintentional but nonetheless serious literary crime of plagiarism.

Fifteen years ago, Octavus Roy Cohen and I just did head off a young girl writer who already had sold the same tale to a pleased editor. I forget now what she called her version.

Today, practically complete in all its sequences—poker game, bogus money, practical jokes, good Samaritan, homeless girl, skeptical hotel clerk, pitiable suicide and all—I find this dear old familiar standby in the current issue of a popular monthly with yet another author sponsoring it.

Jack Garner's Activities.

MONTH after month, Uncle Jack Garner never said anything but "Ouch!" and then not for publication. It seemed that, if defeated, he would go back from the comparative obscurity of Washington to the blazing prominence of Uvalde county, Texas, as the most finished specimen of sound-proof nominee American politics ever produced. But he's no longer a perfect example to all innocent bystanders—he's just a candidate.

Having read his first speech, I'm reminded of the English gentleman who fell on hard times but did have a few layin' hens left and was driven by necessity to peddle their product in the open street.

So she picked out a back alley for her debut into vulgar trade, and, as she crept stealthily along, whispered in a stricken undertone:

"Fresh eggs, tuppence. I hope no one sees me. Fresh eggs, tuppence. I hope no one hears me."

HE KEPT HIS WORD!

NO NEW TAXES... NO NEW DEBTS...

...AND A BALANCED BUDGET!

Two years ago, Michigan was millions of dollars in the red. We were overburdened with taxes and debts. Fitzgerald promised us that, if elected, there would be no new taxes, no new debts—and a balanced budget. He kept his word! We have emerged, in two short years, with a state treasury showing over five million dollars balance! Think of this amazing achievement when you go to the polls on November 3rd!

The Home Town "Goes To Town"

Probably the most unique billboard in all of Michigan is attracting attention on Grand River road just outside of Farmington, a town of 1,200 near Detroit. When Farmington's mayor, Howard M. Warner, won the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, citizens of the town decided to "go to town." They raised money overnight and paid for the billboard shown above, to tell Michigan and the world what they think of Howard Warner. The second contributor was a leading Democrat of the town.

Mr. Warner's noted father, the late Governor Fred M. Warner, also began his distinguished public career by being chosen head of the government of his home town of Farmington.

George A. Schroeder

Democrat Speaker of the House of Representatives

Endorses Miles M. Callaghan for Senator

Lansing, Michigan,
June 7, 1935

Honorable Miles M. Callaghan,
Reed City, Michigan.

Dear Miles:

The splendid co-operation given by you throughout the session was something that I am indeed thankful for. You went way out of your way in your graciousness to me, and many times, by your quick thinking and acting, saved the day in difficult situations.

I deeply appreciate all that you have done to make things easier and to expedite the work of the House, and you may rest assured that I would deem it a distinct privilege to be permitted to do anything that I possibly could, to in some small measure repay you.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE A. SCHROEDER, Speaker.

Many Improvements Assured To Michigan Without the Levy of New Taxes

GOV. ALF M. LANDON

Gov. Alf M. Landon knows the problems of Michigan as evinced by his statements made on the occasion of his recent visit to this state. He is aware that the automobile industry, not only unaided but in the past hampered by New Deal dictatorship, is making great strides along the road to real recovery.

He pointed out that it was no government at Washington that built this great automobile industry, and he called attention to the fact that these plants within the state are paying higher wages and producing cars at lower prices than at any time in history.

He called attention to the all-important fact that it was not planned economy, such as President Roosevelt proposes for the United States that brought about the development of this industry.

"The government at Washington did not make it possible for twenty million of our citizens to own automobiles," he asserted.

"The government at Washington did not give employment to the millions in this new industry and the dozens of related industries."

COL. FRANK KNOX

Col. Frank Knox came to Michigan from Massachusetts in 1881, and it was in the schools of this state that he attained his education and the start in newspaper work that led him to his present position as one of the great editors of the country. His record of achievement in this state is closely allied with our political history.

At the age of 24 he enlisted in Company E, 32nd Michigan regiment, for the Spanish-American war—he rode his bicycle 120 miles to get into the army. He was sworn into the Rough Riders by Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

He was the first president of the Michigan Press association, managed the campaign for Gov. Chase S. Osborn when the latter ran in 1910, and helped to put the state's first Workmen's Compensation law through the legislature.

He purchased a controlling interest in the Chicago Daily News in 1931 and in August, 1935, wrote the first editorial predicting the failure of the NRA to accomplish its purpose for the same reason it was later invalidated by the Supreme Court. In 1934 he began speaking nationally on the un-American regimentation of industry and agriculture.

GOV. FRANK D. FITZGERALD

It is the irrefutable record of Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald that during the 20 months he has been chief executive of Michigan he took the state's finances "out of the red and placed them in the black." He did this by means of his pay-as-you-go policy until now there is a surplus of upwards of $8,000,000 in the state treasury.

It has been the avowed conviction of Governor Fitzgerald that the balancing of a budget is only the first half of a good job. The second half is keeping it balanced.

"I shall combat to the limit of my power," says Governor Fitzgerald, "any tendency or any movement that threatens a return to government by deficit. What can a bankrupt unit of government do toward feeding the poor, giving work to the unemployed, helping the aged, or providing for the crippled children?"

And it might be said at this point that the ten planks adopted by the Republican state convention at Grand Rapids are largely the views of Governor Fitzgerald as to the conduct of state affairs for the next two years.

LIEUT.-GOVERNOR LUREN D. DICKINSON

The "Grand Old Man" of Michigan politics, Luren D. Dickinson of Charlotte, is the Republican nominee for the office of lieutenant governor, the position he has held for six terms. Dickinson entered the state legislature in 1897 and moved progressively to the state senate, and then to the office of lieutenant governor in 1914. He held the latter post three successive terms. In 1929 he was elected to the same office and remained for three more successive terms. There has never been in the history of this state a more quiet, unassuming, yet sincere and frank public servant. He has earned the respect of the Michigan electorate, and as a model of the finest type of state official he will be elected.

SECRETARY OF STATE

ORVILLE E. ATWOOD

Orville E. Atwood, Republican candidate for re-election as secretary of state, has been an outstanding figure in Michigan politics for 18 years. Born in Illinois in 1880 he came to Michigan to farm near Fremont in 1905 after graduation from the University of Chicago. After 13 years of successful farming he was elected to the state house of representatives and served in that body until he was elected a state senator in 1922. He served in the senate or three successive terms and in 1931 was made director of the motor vehicle division under Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald—then secretary of state. In 1934 he was elected secretary of state.

sive terms and in 1931 was made director of the motor vehicle division under Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald—then secretary of state. In 1934 he was elected secretary of state.

Atwood is, therefore, a public servant of long and varied experience in state government. He has been chairman and member of several important legislative committees and many legislative acts pertaining to agriculture improvement, motor vehicle regulation, and highway construction were initiated by him.

He is known as the "father of the gasoline tax bill" which has produced enormous revenues with a minimum cost of collection. He fought for the bill through two defeats in the legislature and if it had been adopted when he proposed it the state would have been saved the $40,000,000 expended on a road bond issue in 1919 which is still not retired. The bill creating the State Department of Agriculture was introduced by Atwood. He is now chairman of the Michigan State Safety council, an organization of state officials who seek to reduce traffic fatalities in Michigan.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DAVID H. CROWLEY

Serving with distinction as special counsel for the city of Detroit in public utility matters, especially in a successful fight to reduce telephone rates which had its influence throughout the state, David H. Crowley, Republican candidate for attorney general, is most ably fitted for that position as his past record shows him consistently on the side of the citizens of Michigan. The office of the attorney general is not new to Mr. Crowley as he was an assistant in that department, 1913-1916, and now is the attorney general having been appointed in 1935, following the elevation of Harry S. Toy to the state supreme court bench.

Knowledge of Mr. Crowley's ability is state-wide, but in four counties he is particularly known. Born in Leslie, Ingham county, he graduated from high school, and then attended law school at Ann Arbor. Afterwards he practiced in Saginaw county, and was prosecuting attorney of Cheboygan county, 1909-1912. Michigan railroad commissioner in 1916 after which he entered private practice in Detroit. He was elected regent of the University of Michigan in 1935.

STATE TREASURER HOWARD M. WARNER

Howard M. Warner, of Farmington, Republican candidate for state treasurer, follows in the footsteps of his illustrious father, the late Fred M. Warner, governor of Michigan from 1905 to 1911. Warner is mayor of Farmington, president of the Farmington State bank, director of the Birmingham Federal Savings & Loan association, and a member of the school board. He has made a remarkable record in carrying Farmington's finances through the depression. He eliminated his salary and that of the commissioners, slashed the budget one-third, and one year after taking office had a treasury balance. He slashed bonded indebtedness, cut taxes one-third, and carried out an ambitious street-paving program. Warner is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and is 43 years old.

AUDITOR GENERAL JOHN J. O'HARA

John J. O'Hara, Republican candidate for re-election to the office of auditor general, is a contribution of the upper peninsula to major Michigan politics. Born in 1885, he worked his way through the Detroit College of Law and practiced law in Menominee for 27 years. He took an early interest in local politics and served as city attorney, prosecuting attorney, and president of the board of education. He was appointed auditor general by Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald in January, 1935, and brought to that office a wealth of practical and specialized knowledge of administration of public office and the law. His sponsorship of legislation for making inmates of the state's penal institutions self-supporting attracted the attention of criminologists the world over and his advertising campaign for collection of the state's delinquent taxes resulted in the return of millions of dollars to the state treasury.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE HARRY S. TOY

Known throughout the United States as "The Fighting Prosecutor," a title bestowed upon him by nationally known newspapers when in 1930 he began an uncompromising battle against gangsters in Detroit and Wayne county, Harry S. Toy is the Republican candidate for return to the supreme bench to which he was elevated from the post of attorney general, October 24, 1935. His appointment followed the death of Justice Nelson Sharpe. Born at Elkhorn, W. Va., in 1892, Harry S. Toy graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1913. He served with distinction as a captain of machine-guns in the World war. He was elected prosecutor of Wayne county for the term beginning January 1, 1931.

He was the sole Republican candidate re-elected in Wayne in 1932, and, in 1934, was unanimously chosen candidate for attorney general on the Republican ticket.

WILBER M. BRUCKER

Wilber M. Brucker will go to Washington as junior senator with a fine background of experience and with an understanding of the problems of the people of Michigan. His past services to the state as governor and, prior to that, attorney general, give to him the qualifications that the citizens of the commonwealth have a right to expect from a public servant in such an important post.

No public speaker in this or any other state has been more forceful or consistent crusading against the spendthrift policies of the new deal. He has traveled this state from end to end bringing home to the voters the great necessity of a change in the national administration. In painting the pictures of waste and extravagance of the present governmental setup, he has brought home to the laborers, the farmers, and the women folk, just how hopeless will be their lot if a change is not brought about in the immediate future.

CONGRESSMAN ROY O. WOODRUFF

Congressman Woodruff's long years of fine service is well known to the citizens of the Tenth district. He is one of the hardest workers and strongest members of Congress. Whenever requests by home people are made of him, prompt action is always assured, and the job is always well done. He is keen, alert and has a broad understanding of affairs at Washington. His ability is not only recognized by the members of his own political party but he is held in high respect by executives and members of all parties. Mr. Woodruff knows what it is all about and there is no doubt but that he will be returned to Washington to represent the people of this 10th district.

MILES CALLAGHAN

—For state senator is an ideal candidate. His eight years in the legislature has given him an experience that will be most valuable in his new capacity in the senate of Michigan.

He is a farmer and fruit grower and is proud of it. "That's the only business I have," says Mr. Callaghan. Read the fine endorsement given him by the democratic speaker of the house of representatives, George A. Schroeder, that appears in his advertising in this issue of the Avalanche. Elect Mr. Callaghan to fill the position of former Senator Ben Carver, who voluntarily retired from public office and who is one of the strongest endorsers of Mr. Callaghan.

sound judgment and look at matters with the idea of what is best for the people he represents. He must maintain order and defend the peace and dignity of the people. The late Rube Babbitt made but few arrests, however game laws were quite generally obeyed because people respected Rube. It is true of Mr. Bennett, he does not brutally apply the law at every provocation and has been successful in maintaining order with but little friction. He makes an ideal custodian of the county property and peace officer.

AUSTIN J. SCOTT

The Republican candidate for County Clerk is a family man who has made a success of his efforts. For many years he carried the mail on the Star route. Everyone served on this route learned to know Austin Scott and to appreciate him for the fine dependable service he rendered. Weather conditions made no difference to Mr. Scott, the mail had to be delivered on time.

Carrying the mail wasn't a lucrative position and when the department asked for competitive bids for doing this work Mr. Scott lost the job. While he had been thrifty and a good manager, he still had to work and was appointed manager of the local liquor store. Here too he has made good and inspectors compliment him on his efficiency and the correctness of his reports and records.

Mr. Scott is honest and efficient and it may be depended upon that he will do a good job in the clerk's office, and the public is going to like him on this job.

COUNTY TREASURER WILLIAM FERGUSON

Mr. Ferguson's overwhelming majorities in elections is a strong indication of the confidence the voters of the county have in him as their treasurer. The affairs of the county treasurer's office couldn't be better administered by anyone, and too the public always is given painstaking, accurate and prompt attention.

You can always depend upon Mr. Ferguson.

The county's finances are in safe security and the records of the treasurer's office are accurate and up to date at all times. Keep Bill on the job.

CARL W. PETERSON

The office of Register of Deeds is important to property owners and others who must have dependable property recording and information. The Republican candidate for this job is one of the most accurate accountants, excellent typist and fine penman in the county.

Everyone knows Carl Peterson. He was born in Grayling and graduated from Grayling schools. For many years he conducted a jewelry store, succeeding his father, that former fine citizen, Andrew Peterson. Everyone remembers the fine store Mr. Peterson operated and understand his natural orderliness and systematic operation of his store. He will make an exemplary official in the office of county register of deeds.

Harry Sorenson and Arthur Wendt for coroners and E. L. Houghton for surveyor have no opposition for their respective offices. All are well known to our people and each is well qualified for the position they seek.

JUDGE JOHN C. SHAFFER

—candidate for the office of circuit judge, was little known here before the primary election. His large majority over the able and highly qualified Judge Edward Bilitzke proves Mr. Shaffer's popularity in the district. We are sure the people of the 34th judicial district are going to appreciate this splendid attorney as their circuit judge.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY MERLE F. NELLIST

Mr. Nellist is unopposed for the office of prosecuting attorney, a responsibility he has held for many years. He is an attorney of splendid ability and is a keen student of the law. He appreciates the confidence of the people of the county in continuing him in this office.

JUDGE CHARLES E. MOORE

—for probate judge is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Moore came to Grayling last year after practicing law in Detroit for eight years, and found that there was only one attorney in Crawford county. He liked Grayling and decided that he would locate his law office here. He had confidence in Grayling and the first thing he did was to purchase the

Geo. L. Alexander office building for his office. He is married and has a young daughter in school. Mr. Moore grew to manhood in Cheboygan, where he graduated from high school. He liked the Great Lakes and by practical nautical experience and hard study he earned and now enjoys the distinction of being a licensed Great Lakes boat captain.

Sailing was not agreeable to his health and he began the study of law at the Detroit College of law and graduated with a fine record and high honors. He served his country in the World war and is a member of the American Legion. Circumstances, due to the death of Judge George Sorenson, then county probate judge, left a vacancy in that office. That's a position that is best filled by an attorney and Mr. Moore made application to Governor Fitzgerald for the appointment. Mr. Moore was given some of the finest endorsements any man could wish. Among those who interested themselves in securing his appointment were Attorney General David H. Crowley, Deputy Attorney General Shepherd and Bilitzke and Circuit Judge Victor Sprague, of Cheboygan, all of whom knew Mr. Moore since boyhood and had watched his progress in the practice of law.

Since assuming the duties of probate judge of Crawford county, Judge Moore has worked hard and has cleaned up a lot of delayed probate cases and has given prompt attention to the duties of that office. His able legal knowledge and his sense of fairness and understanding gives Crawford county the best probate judge we have ever had. As judge of the juvenile court his love for youth and his understanding of child problems makes him the safe and ideal jurist that every one having business with his court appreciates.

SHERIFF FRANK BENNETT

Being sheriff of Crawford county is a tough job and there is hardly a day or night in which that official is not called out on duty. He has many problems to contend with and at times it is necessary to use drastic measures.

A sheriff must be a man of
